Competition tightening up a Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo

FORT WORTH, Texas (February 6, 2019) — With just five performances of regular rodeo left at the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo before Saturday night's championship finals, the competition is getting very tough.

The twelve contestants with the highest total score on three rides in bareback riding will advance to the finals in hopes of winning a trophy buckle and all the accolades that goes with a title here.

In the bull riding and saddle bronc riding contestants will qualify for the finals based on their scores on two rides. The steer wrestling, team roping, tie-down roping and barrel racing contestants advance on their total times on two runs.

Barrel racers started the second round in the Will Rogers Coliseum on Wednesday and three-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Stevi Hillman from Weatherford, Texas, took command of the standings.

Riding Guys R A Mystery, a 10-year-old gelding that has a barn name of Sherlock, Hillman stopped the clock in 16.48 seconds on Wednesday afternoon. She was in a tie for first place in the round and was at the top of the overall standings with a total time of 33.10.

Then Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi from Victoria, Texas had a blazing-fast run at 16.37 seconds to move ahead of Hillman. Tonozzi has a total time of 33.22 overall. These women will all be watching through the next five performances to see if their positions hold.

The reserve-champion bareback rider from the 2018 College National Finals Rodeo is making the most of his trip to Fort Worth to compete at the rodeo. Garrett Shadbolt has ridden two horses here for 84 and 82.5 points. The Merriman, Nebraska, resident just needs another 80-point ride to move to the top of the bareback riding standings.

There is a less than a four-point spread in the top six positions of the bareback riding now. Steven Peebles is in the lead with 247.5 points. His younger brother David Peebles is in sixth with 244. They both make their homes in Redmond, Oregon. The gap is narrowing in other competitions as well.

The World's Original Indoor Rodeo® continues Thursday with performances at 2 and 7:30 p.m.
